

Fine Design INTERIORS, INC.

Fine Design Interiors, Inc., (FDI) a Hawaii Island-based firm specializing in residential interiors, assists clients with projects ranging from quaint beach cottages to construction management on the highest-end luxury resort homes. Led by Principal Designer Shirley Wagner, ASID-NCIDQ, the experienced team at Fine Design has received a multitude of highly prestigious design industry awards for their work. FDI has also been commissioned to work in California, Colorado, Washington and the Caribbean.

Noteworthy FDI projects include the historic Charles Dickey Residence in Honolulu; several Kukio Resort residences; an Estate Villa at Hanoa at Hualalai Resort; a Hokulia Resort Residence; a Modern Hawaii Beach Cottage and a Mauna Kea Villa among many others.

As part of the FDI brand, the newly launched Design Alive Furnishings portfolio offers clients an extensive selection of custom interiors featuring healthy and sustainable furnishings. These products do not contain or release formaldehydes, pesticides or other pollutants known to cause harm to people and the planet. Only furnishings manufactured with high quality control and healthy, sustainable best practices are included.

Shirley and her team are committed to designing beautiful, mindful spaces that tastefully blend art, textures, materials, form and function to create an authentic, true sanctuary for living.
